The Warehouse Group strengthens Leadership team with Chief Corporate Affairs Officer appointment

The Warehouse Group has appointed Anna Shipley to the newly created role of Chief Corporate Affairs Officer.

Group CEO Nick Grayston says Anna will be an outstanding addition to the Group Leadership Team at a time of transformation and growth for the business.

“Since joining The Warehouse Group as Corporate Affairs Lead in October 2021, Anna has already made a significant difference to our business, and we’re thrilled to have her join the Leadership Team.”

Prior to joining The Warehouse Group in 2021, Anna was General Manager Corporate Affairs at BNZ, as well as Director of Communications for Nokia China and APAC based in Beijing, and Head of Communications for Nokia & UK based in London.
